Re: Rajcoomar v. Wal-Mart
 Docket No. 06cv6835 (CLB) (MDF)

Dear Judge Breian:

I am the attorney in the above firm assigned to represent the Plaintiff in the above matter.

I write to request that Plaintiff's time to serve its opposition to the Defendant's motion for summary judgment be extended from October 31, 2007 until November 16, 2007. This is Plaintiff's first request for an extension of time. Defendant's counsel has consented to this request subject to the Court's approval of the schedule set out below.

The extension is requested because, as a result of the Plaintiff working 2 jobs and counsel's heavy litigation schedule, it has been difficult to coordinate Plaintiff's opposition to the motion. Consequently, Plaintiff respectfully requests that its time to serve its opposition to Defendant's motion for summary judgment be extended from October 31, 2007 until November 16, 2007, that Defendant's time to serve its reply to Plaintiff's opposition be extended to and including December 14, 2007 and that the return date and oral argument on the motion be adjourned to December 20th, 2007 at 10:00 a.m.

Please contact me if there is any additional information or documentation the Court would deem helpful. Thank you for your time, attention and consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Joseph J. Ranni, Attorney for Plaintiff
